

C G JUNG INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO

AN INTRODUCTION TO JUNG'S ANALYTICAL PSYCHOLOGY

with

Margaret Zulaski, Psy.D.

Wednesdays, August 26th, September 9th, September 23rd, 2009
6:30 pm to 8:30 pm

You may enjoy this exploration of Jung's map of the human psyche/soul whether you have some familiarity with Jungian thought or not. These classes and reading offer a detailed overview that may pique your interest for further study. Jungian analyst, Sr. Marge Zulaski, Psy.D., will present an overview of the chapters and will illustrate concepts with myth and story. Marge will guide discussion and group interaction to enhance your learning.

LOCATION

Wheaton Franciscan Sisters Campus – Maura Hall Oasis Room
26 W 171 Roosevelt Road, Wheaton, IL 60187

DISCUSSION FEE*

$60 for three classes

$15 additional fee - 6 CE credits (call 312.701.0400 for credit)

For all registrations visit www.jungchicago.org

Learning Objectives

- Gain knowledge of Jung's core concepts: ego, Self, persona, shadow, complex, and symbol
- Learn to apply these ideas to your own psychological pattern
- Through discussion, make connections with this learning to your work with other people

Required Reading

Jung's Map of the Soul by Murray Stein published by Open Court.

There will be reading assigned for each class. Please read pages 1 – 84 before the first class.

Margaret Zulaski, Psy.D., is a member of the Wheaton Franciscan Sisters and served on their community leadership team from 2000-2008. From 2004 -2008 she served as their Province leader. As a clinical psychologist she has worked in hospital settings and in private practice. Currently, she offers psychotherapy and Jungian analysis for individuals as well as dream work groups in Wheaton, Illinois. At the Jung Institute of Chicago she serves as a committee member and as a teacher.

The C. G. Jung Institute of Chicago is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists and by the Illinois Department of Professional Regulation to provide continuing education (CE) credit for social workers, professional counselors and marriage and family therapists. The Institute maintains responsibility for this program and its contents.